Open Auditions

The Musketeers & The Pirates

Audition date: Sunday, January 29th, 2012, 1.30pm
Chestnut Heights Community Centre, 1 - 3 Poplar Close, Brixham or other dates by arrangement

Spinoff story, based in the times of the "Three Musketeers" set in La Rochelle, at a time, historically, when Cardinal Richelieu was working on building up the size of the French Naval fleet, having taken charge of the French Navy.

This is a lot earlier than rehearsals will begin (end of March 2012), but the director needs to cast early, in order for costumes to be made

The play is approximately 20 minutes long, to be performed primarily during the spring at the Brixham Pirate Festival 2012 and the Plymouth Pirate Festival 2012 (2 or 3 performances), which the South Devon Players annually support with performances,

We have also been asked to perform it during the summer holidays as part of Brixhams weekly "Pirate Thursdays" afternoons, for extra swashbuckling excitement.
We are therefore looking for cast who can ideally be available for all events, otherwise we are happy to cast for the two spring festivals, and then re-cast for the summer Pirate Thursdays (if the Thursdays performances prove possible).

Male and female roles are available age 16 - 80.
Obviously quite a few, though not all, roles will require stage combat skills. Workshops will be provided free of charge.
