Monologue – Hellfire and Brimstone

God Almighty is watching you!

Do you not think that he doesn't know, as you lurch blindly from one sin to another, down the slippery slope to eternal damnation?

Look at yourselves and repent!

Ah it is easy to stand and laugh, and revel in your sins of flesh and gluttony and satanic practice! When you stand before our Lord on Judgement Day and your soul is sent to the fiery depths of hell for all eternity it will be too late to repent – as you writhe in eternal torment from which you do not even have the release of death, while demons frolic rejoicing in your screams from the fiery pit!

You over there, I see you, reading a novel. THIS Bible is the only book that you need to read, do not mock our Lord with your smirk, you will not smirk in hell.

You all know of the Ten Commandments, read them and follow them with all your heart and soul!

Fall to your knees and repent of your sins, carry the word of our Lord to your friends and family and to those who follow satanic religions or none at all. Show them the one true way, and know that you are doing the work of our Lord out of purest love for their eternal souls.

You see all the suffering on your televisions? That is nothing to the suffering your loved ones will endure for eternity if, you, yes you, cannot or will not save them and make them see the true Way.

May our Lord Almighty be with you all!
